The agency represents and promotes a stable of high-quality entertainers in almost every field: musicians, comedians, DJs and MCs, magicians and jugglers, and many more; the right fit for every type of occasion or event.

CEO John Kelly’s enthusiasm is palpable. “We are essentially a talent employment agency, providing dependable, on-time contract labor, averaging about 30 jobs per weekend.” He acknowledges the rough patch the entertainment business has encountered recently, but says, “We all know that Covid has affected all industries in the recent past, but we feel we’ve turned a corner and are back to some kind of normal. Last month alone, we booked 230 events!”

He’s proud of the company’s representation of his talent roster and its variety. Boomers would recognize such esteemed acts as Johnny Rivers and Herman’s Hermits. Kelly adds, “We have classical groups such as the Monterey String Quartet as well as singer/songwriters we book into local venues. We also cater to renowned clients such as the Pebble Beach and Carmel Valley Resorts locally, as well as corporate clients and hotels nation-wide.”

Kelly Productions listens to the needs and desires of their clients in order to provide the perfect entertainment solution for every situation. And, as Kelly says, he’s “looking forward to a bright future. This is still an exciting business for me. I feel very lucky. It’s a joyous thing!”
